December Meeting Steve "Wildman" Wilson

Please join us on December 9, 2008 for an evening with Stephen Wilson. Steve Wilson, better known to Arkansans as "Wildman", earned his nickname in 1984 when he became the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission's coordinator of Project WILD, a conservation education program.

He began his career with Game and Fish as a hunting safety training officer in 1978, and was named chief of the information and education division in 1987. Along the way, he has earned the Game and Fish Employee of the Year Award twice.

Steve is the host and co-producer of "Talkin' Outdoors at the Corner Café," a 30-minute, weekly television program.

Born in 1950, Steve grew up in southwest Little Rock. He holds a bachelor's degree in speech, business administration and education from Southern Nazarene University in Bethany, Okla., and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Central Oklahoma in Edmond.

Steve enjoys sharing time with his wife Gail and his daughter Celeste. He's an avid deer and turkey hunter, likes competitive sports and collects hats and turkey calls.

Upcoming CQE Training

Plans are being made to conduct Certified Quality Engineer (CQE) training beginning in January 2009 through May 2009. If interested, please contact Education Chair Connie Satzler at 501-301-2065 or connie.satzler@falconjet.com.

ASQ Certification: An Investment in Your Future

Certified Quality Engineer

One of the more demanding certifications in terms of the experience needed to apply for the exam, the CQE also holds the distinction of having the largest certified group—at more than 34,000 people certified. Certified quality engineers serve their organizations and clients by developing and implementing quality programs.

Meeting Attendance Reports

As a service to our members, our Database Chair will be sending a Meeting Attendance Report to members who are due to recertify. This means that you will no longer have to keep track of your meeting attendance for RUs. The Meeting Attendance Report can be submitted with your Recertification Journal / Application to claim RUs for section meetings that you have attended since your last certification or recertification.
